Important Announcement for Christ Church Nashville

Pastor Hardwick has announced to the church board, staff and congregation his intention to become pastor Emeritus of Christ Church. In view of this decision, he has called for a congregational vote to take place on Sunday, June 29th at 5:00 p.m., to fill the office of senior pastor. In that meeting, he will present to the congregation the name of pastor Dan Scott, whom he presented and the board ratified, as the nominee for that office. All active members of the church are urged to search their hearts and to cast their vote as the Lord leads them. This is a momentous occasion in the life of our church and we want to go forward into the future with God's blessings and in unity with one another.

Official membership is new to us here at Christ Church so we should all take note of what constitutes an "active member." This term refers to the people who have signed a membership card and are consistent with their attendance and financial support. If you have not yet become an official member, you are welcome to sign a card (or fill out the form online) for two more weeks. That is the "grandfather" period, in which those who have considered themselves "members" of this church will be encouraged to make this official before we move toward a more definitive process for membership. This means that you still have time to take care of this before our congregational election and we certainly hope that you will!

Dear dedicated reader,

In the time of temporary economic slowdown of our national economy, Christ Church is attempting to do all within its power to maximize its material resources. In light of this, we have decided to suspend the monthly "Pages" for the time being. We are looking into some more creative ideas, using the internet and email to continue informing you of all the incredible opportunities happening at Christ Church. So, keep your eyes opened for the new ideas. Thank you for your continued support and understanding.

Sincerely,
Lauren Gardner
Director of Public Relations
